SAFETYWARE IS PROUD TO BE IN THE FINALIST OF BEST BRAND BY THE STAR BUSINESS AWARDS 2014

25 November 2014, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia – Safetyware, a leading brand in protection solutions, is among the top finalist for the Best Brand Award 2014 presented by The Star Business Awards at Bangsar South City, Kuala Lumpur.

The Star Business Awards aims to promote excellence and stimulate positive competition, particularly paying homage to local enterprises. This competition is organized by The Star newspaper, the property of Star Publications (Malaysia) Berhad, has more than 40 years of experience in the market with over 2 million readers. As its award tagline, “Honouring The Best In Malaysian Business”, this award goes to the company that has invested in building a strong local brand that is valued and appreciated by the public.

The judging of this competition remains stringent to ensure companies with top-notch quality are being selected and we are pleased to be a part of the finalist for the Best Brand Award. This recognition has proved that we have pursued the best and it has given us the spur to strive for a much greater heights. Besides, we are delighted that we shall be the inspiration and aspiration for many other growing companies.

In conjunction with the entitlement of Finalist for the Best Brand award, we are giving a sample coverall test of our newly launched Safetyware Ultitec Chemical Protection Coverall, a strong, durable and good breathability coverall that suits for all industrial and medical applications.
