MASS CPR – AED EVENT 2017

May 2017, Bukit Mertajam – Mass CPR & AED Event 2017 was held at SMJK Jit Sin on 6th May 2017. A total of 4746 students & teachers were included in this event. Under training provided by professional first-aiders from different communities, participants got the precious chance to learn about Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) and steps to operate an Automated External Defibrillator (AED).

This Mass CPR-AED Event was organized by Lions Club of Georgetown Central. There are a total of 90 stations with ZOLL AED and mannequin with 100+ instructors on the spot to teach the participants on how to conduct correct CPR and also how to use the AED. There was another achievement on the day as this Mass CPR-AED Event successfully achieved Malaysia Book of Records on Largest AED Training Session with 4746 participants.

Safetyware Sdn. Bhd. as the distributor of ZOLL AED, was honoured to be able to take part in this event. It is a new achievement as there are more people being taught on how to conduct basic CPR and used the AED. Therefore, if there are sudden cardiac arrest cases occur, they will be able to provide helping hands.
